Show HN: peerd - AI agent harness that runs entirely in your browser

HackerNews 50% HN 59

Hey HN. <http://peerd.ai> is an AI agent harness that lives entirely in your browser as a web extension. You don't have to install a separate "AI browser". You don't have to bolt on or run some external process or manage a clunky mcp integration. It's just a fully contained web...

Show HN: eBook to audiobook narration with realistic AI voices

HackerNews 50% HN 7

For a while I've wanted to try out the new AI voices for long-form narration, but everything I found required a subscription that didn't justify my limited usage. I came across the open Kokoro model [0] and the voices are very good -- good enough to listen to for hours without...

Stripe, Anthropic, and OpenAI are backing an effort to stop respiratory infections

MIT Tech Review 50%

The common cold comes for us all—often more than once a year. And there is no way to prevent it. The best you can do is take vitamin C and stay away from people with the sniffles. Now the payment company Stripe, founded by brothers Patrick and John Collison, says it will fund a...

The emergence of the web data infrastructure layer for AI

MIT Tech Review 50%

AI is booming. New use cases are emerging each day. To capitalize on the technology's potential, enterprises require data at scale. In many cases, though, the relevant information is blocked or unstructured, which limits its use by AI models. To understand this challenge,...
