Show HN: A satirical idle game about running an AI startup

HackerNews 50% HN 8

The ~500 kB NBSDGames 6 has managed to be published ahead of GTA 6! 2026 is the year of Linux desktop because of NBSDGames 6! I play them all the time, maybe you would too. Some games are newly invented original ideas.

Show HN: Lilo - An open source personal AI assistant that lives in Telegram

HackerNews 50% HN 2

Hi everyone, I wanted to share an open source Telegram-based personal AI assistant I built. It's a model-agnostic agent with memory, skills, tools (like web search, browser user, etc.) operating in a persistent workspace. It also has support for scheduled tasks, and can build...

Google's new anything-to-anything AI model is wild

The Verge AI 50%

Last year I deepfaked my kid's stuffed animal to make it look like his plush deer was on vacation. It was an experiment to see if I could re-create the events depicted in a Gemini ad Google was running, and I never showed the videos of Buddy the deer on his adventures to my...
