Show HN: Routing24 - free route optimization agent for Claude Cowork/WebMCP

HackerNews 50% HN 4

I've been building <https://routing24.com> for a while, a free route optimization and planning app for businesses. One of the things that bothered me for quite a time is inability of browser agents to work with Routing24. We have tons of natural tasks for AI: - data ingestion, to...

Show HN: Local MCP - Claude/ChatGPT read your iMessage, Teams, files on-device

HackerNews 50% HN 3

I kept hitting the same wall: AI assistants are great until they need my context — the email thread, the calendar, the iMessage, the file on my disk. Cloud connectors can only reach things with a public API, so they physically can't touch the stuff that lives only on my machine....

The fanfiction community is at war with AI — and itself

The Verge AI 50%

Over the past week, a new fanworks movement has kicked off, with the aim to root out authors using generative AI. But the detection methods being implemented are questionable, and any fanfic writer could be caught in the crossfire. Broad distaste around the use of Claude,...
